<?xml version="1.0" encoding="UTF-8"?>
<metadata>
  <identifier>the-government-ignore-our-missing-kidds</identifier>
  <mediatype>data</mediatype>
  <collection>opensource_media</collection> <collection>community</collection>
  <creator>Sam Hanafy</creator>
  <description><img src="blob:https://archive.org/97aef485-596c-487c-b361-6f3f54180432" alt="97aef485-596c-487c-b361-6f3f54180432"
/>Parental International Children AbductionFrom The USA
 Justice Ignores Stolen Kids   ` Despite recent testimony before Congress by beleaguered parents of internationally kidnapped children, State and Justice departments continue to dismiss these crimes.After a pair of congressional hearings held this autumn about the tragedy of international kidnapping by estranged parents, victims received the latest excuse for why both the State and Justice departments do little or nothing to recover thesechildren and bring them home. You see, it's all because of insufficient resources: Children are left in the hands of their kidnappers because Congress won't provide enough money for education, training, case workers and special prosecutors. State and Justice officials tell parents this is why they must rely on the Hague Convention, an international treaty requiring signatory countries to obey child-custody orders. But as victimized parents know, the treaty routinely is broken -- and violators are allowed to do so with impunity. To be continued.<sub>Copyright licenses and Creative Commons tools provide a balance within the traditional.</sub><sub>“all rights reserved” framework created by copyright laws</sub></description> <language>eng</language>
  <licenseurl>https://creativecommons.org/publicdomain/mark/1.0/</licenseurl>
  <scanner>Internet Archive HTML5 Uploader 1.7.0</scanner>
  <subject>Open letter sent the media - Parental children abduction</subject>
  <title>The Government Ignore Our Missing Kidds</title>
  <uploader>hozongol1311@gmail.com</uploader>
  <publicdate>2022-10-20 10:09:25</publicdate>
  <addeddate>2022-10-20 10:09:25</addeddate>
  <curation>[curator]validator@archive.org[/curator][date]20221020101435[/date]
[comment]checked for malware[/comment]</curation>
  <date>11/3/2017</date>
  <year>2017</year>
  <publisher>Angella Kinelly, Attorney </publisher>
  <coverage>USA Vs EGY</coverage>
  <ppi>300</ppi>
  <ocr>tesseract 5.3.0-3-g9920</ocr>
  <ocr_parameters>-l eng</ocr_parameters>
  <ocr_module_version>0.0.19</ocr_module_version>
  <ocr_detected_script>Latin</ocr_detected_script>
  <ocr_detected_script_conf>1.0000</ocr_detected_script_conf>

```
  <ocr_detected_lang>en</ocr_detected_lang>
  <ocr_detected_lang_conf>1.0000</ocr_detected_lang_conf>
  <pdf_module_version>0.0.22</pdf_module_version>
</metadata>
```